anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor/defacto complainant vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail by stating that even after registration of FIR, the petitioners joined together and attacked the defacto complainant.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that no one sustained injury in this case and the facts narrated by the defacto complainant in the complaint are not true.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that no one has sustained injury in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Singampunery, Sivagangai District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a) if the petitioners failed to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b) the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(c) the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police as and when required for interrogation;

(d) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
