2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a civil dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioner abused the default complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with iron rod and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence this complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen
