2.The case of the prosecution is that due to pathway dispute between the petitioner's family and the defacto complainant's family, on 21.02.2024 at about 4.30 p.m., the accused Nos.1 and 2 entered into wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant's wife and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and abused him using filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the injured is discharged from the hospital. So, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that injured is discharged from the hospital. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that injured is discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a
