2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused had illegally transported 4 units of gravel sand. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- to the restoration of Kanmai situated around the Othakadai and Narasingam areas in Madurai District and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioner and other accused were in illegal transportation of 4 units of gravel sand and the petitioner has no previous case.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the amount of sand involved in this case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sattur,
