2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.02.2024, the accused persons were found in illegal possession of 13 bottles of Monitor Brandy 180 ML. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to pay a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the Government Primary School, Keelauppilikundu, Virudhunagar District, for the welfare of the students studying in the School, and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that five previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submission made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
