2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, A1 and A2 trespassed into the defacto complainant's land and they tried to erect hut in the said property at the instigation of the petitioner. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, A1 and A2 attacked the defacto complainant with aruval and wooden log. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that no one has sustained injury in this case and the investigation is pending. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that no one has sustained injury in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Manaparai, Trichy District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only),
