COMMON ORDER

All these writ petitions have been filed to regularize the service of the petitioners on completion of their 10 years service without break with all consequential monetary and service benefits, within the time stipulated by this Court.

2. Similar matter came to be dealt with by this Court in W.P(MD)No. 18974 of 2022, dated 04.01.2024, in which, similar cases of CPCLR was considered and favourable orders were passed in favour of the consolidated employees/petitioners therein. In these cases also, the petitioners made representations to regularize their service in the available permanent vacancy in respondent University, on completion of their 10 years service without break with all consequential monetary and service benefits. For the sake of convenience, the details of the service rendered by the writ petitioners is tabulated as follows.

However, the representations of the petitioners were not acted upon till date. Hence, these writ petitions came to be filed.

3.It is needless to point out that whenever a representation of this nature is made to a Statutory Authority, there is a duty cast upon the respondents to consider the same on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in one way or other, instead of keeping the same pending indefinitely. As such, non-consideration of the representation by the Statutory Authority would amount to dereliction of duty and hence, this Court will be justified in invoking its extraordinary powers under Article 226 of Constitution of India and direct the respondents to consider the same within a stipulated time.

4.Considering the limited scope of the relief sought for by the petitioners, without going into the merits of the case, this Court hereby direct the first respondent to consider the representations of the petitioners and pass appropriate orders, in accordance with law, within a period of twelve (12) weeks, from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
