2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a money dispute between the petitioner and the son of the defacto complainant, due to which, the accused persons trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and attacked her and her husband with wooden stick. Hence this complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that two persons were injured in this case and both of them were discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured persons were discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be
