2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant approached the petitioner to secure a job at abroad, therefore, the petitioner received Rs.57,000/-from the defacto complainant and assured that he will arrange the job at abroad. But later, he neither returned the money nor secured the job. Similarly, the petitioner cheated several persons by giving false promise. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, he would submit that the petitioner is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.5,67,000/-, to the credit of Crime No.5 of 2024 before the concerned trial Court without prejudice to his rights and contentions and the trial Court may disburse the said amount to the alleged victims, after obtaining appropriate affidavit from the victims that in the event, the petitioner succeeds in the trial, liberty may be granted to the petitioner for refund of the said amount. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 15.02.2024. Hence, he prays for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the investigation is yet to be completed.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side.
