2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons were found in illegal possession of 97 numbers of brandy bottles. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to pay a sum of Rs.25,000/- to the credit of the Dean, Thanjavur Medical College Hospital, Thanjavur, for the welfare of the Cancer patients and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that five previous cases were pending against the petitioner, in which, three cases are disposed of.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation levelled against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
