The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.31 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 25.02.2024, when the defacto complainant entered into her house, she saw that her husband was lying down with blood injuries. After enquiry, she came to know that the accused persons attacked her husband and scolded him using filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the injured is discharged from the hospital. Further, when the defacto complainant entered quarrel with one Sekar and Mathi, one Gopi, who is friend of Mathi tried to resolve the issue, at that time, the defacto complainant attacked him with broken beer bottle and caused injury. So, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that injured is discharged from the hospital. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
