2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to pay a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Melur, Madurai District, for constructing a toilet to the Women Advocates without prejudice to his defence before the trial Court, and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that the investigation is yet to be completed and two previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the quantity of the sand transported by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thanjavur,

CRL OP(MD) No.3320 of 2024

Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a)if the petitioner failed to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b)as per the undertaking given by the petitioner, the petitioner shall make a Demand Draft for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) in favour of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Melur, Madurai District, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court and the petitioner is further directed to produce a copy of the Demand Draft before the trial Court, while executing the sureties; Thereafter, the learned Judicial Magistrate shall spend the amount for constructing a toilet to the Women Advocates;

(c)the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
