CRL OP(MD) No.3299 of 2024

(Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.455 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported four units of river sand. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to pay a sum of Rs.80,000/- to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Melur, Madurai District, for constructing a toilet to the Women Advocates without prejudice to his defence before the trial Court, and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that the investigation is yet to be completed and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the quantity of the sand transported by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Karur, on condition
