perusing the petition filed in support thereof and upon hearing the arguments of Mr.M.JEGADEESH PANDIAN, Advocate for the petitioner and of Mr.A.THIRUVADI KUMAR, Additional Public Prosecutor on behalf of the Respondent, While admitting the Criminal Appeal, the court made the following order:-

The petitioner has filed this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition praying to suspend the sentence imposed on her by the learned II Additional Special Court for NDPS Act Cases, Madurai, in C.C.No.16 of 2021 dated 28.03.2023 and to enlarge her on bail, pending disposal of the Criminal Appeal.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 05.10.2020 at about 12.30 hours, the respondent Police has conducted the prohibition raid near Karimedu area. At that time, the petitioner/A1 and A2 were found in possession of 11 kgs of Ganja being transported in TVS Scooty Pink Colour vehicle bearing Registration No.TN-58-BC-9390 and were having the sale consideration of Rs.7,300/- and A3 and A5 were found in possession of 11 kgs of Ganja being transported in Honda Activa Black Colour Vehicle bearing Registration No.TN-58-AP-6669 and A4 was piloting the other accused in Hero Honda Splendor Pro Black Colour vehicle bearing Registration No.TN-58-AC-4767 on Amma Bridge Roundana, Arappalayam, Madurai and on that basis, FIR came to be registered in Crime No.1466 of 2020 on the file of the respondent/Inspector of Police, Karimedu Police Station, Madurai, for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) read with 20(b) (ii) (B) of NDPS Act and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.16 of 2021 before the learned II Additional Special Court for NDPS Act Cases, Madurai. The petitioner was convicted and sentenced to undergo five years rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Fourty Thousand only) with six months simple imprisonment in case of default. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has preferred the present Criminal Appeal along with the above Criminal Miscellaneous Petition seeking suspension of sentence.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the respondent has not followed the procedures established under NDPS Act and no clinching material was produced to prove the manner in which the seizure has been effected and there is no corroboration between the evidence of P.W.1 and other witnesses and the delay in lodging the complaint, registration of FIR and reaching to Judicial Magistrate after long delay was not at all properly explained by the trial Court and there is no plausible reason given by the trial Court for accepting the delay.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would further submit that the petitioner is in jail from 06.10.2020. Out of five years conviction period, she underwent 3 ½ years, more than half of the sentence. Hence, the learned counsel prays for suspension of sentence of the petitioner.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the contradictions that were pointed by the defence would go to show that they are trivial and not material and that would affect the root of the prosecution case and all the grounds raised by the petitioner are vague and unsustainable. He further submitted that the petitioner/ A1 being the son of A2 was very much travelling in the same two wheeler which stands in the name of the daughter of A1 and the trial Court, after considering the evidence available on record in a proper perspective, has rightly convicted the petitioner. Moreover, the petitioner has 16 previous cases and she is a habitual offender and hence, prays to dismiss the petition.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and perused the materials available on record.

7. This Court finds force in the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner. Hence, this Court is of the prima facie view that there are arguable points involved in this Criminal Appeal. Moreover, the petitioner has been incarcerated from 06.10.2020 and further the Criminal Appeal is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.
