2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the parties, on 23.02.2024, when the defacto complainant came to the house of the petitioners, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapons and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and it is a case and case in counter and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that it is a counter case and the injured was already discharged from the hospital. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it appears to be a counter case and the injured was already discharged from
