2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language. Hence, the case has been registered against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and due to civil dispute between the parties, the defacto complainant made a false complaint against the petitioner and the co-accused have already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.(MD)No.1112 of 2024 on 24.01.2024. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the State would submit that the petitioner along with other accused entered into the defacto complainant's property and damaged the property and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact it appears to be a civil dispute and the co-accused have already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
