The petitioners / Accused Nos.1 to 4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506 (ii) of I.P.C r/w Section 4 TNPWH Act, 2002, in Crime No.46 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute pending between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and abused him by using filthy language. Hence, a case has been registered against the petitioners by the respondent Police.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they are innocent persons and hence, they prayed for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. He would further submit that the injured person has been discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
