2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's wife borrowed a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- from the first petitioner and she failed to repay the same. On 12.02.2024, the accused persons demanded Rs.2,50,000/- from the defacto complainant, assaulted and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the injured is discharged from the hospital and it is a case and counter case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that injured is discharged from the hospital and and it is the case and counter case and the counter party enlarged on bail by the concerned Court. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured is discharged from the hospital and it is the case and counter case and the defacto complainant and his wife were enlarged on bail by the concerned Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
