2.The case of the prosecution is that the Inspector of Police, CCB, Coimbatore, has registered a case in Crime No.13 of 2024 against the petitioner's husband for the offences under Section 465, 467, 468, 471, 420 of IPC. When the Police officers went to arrest the petitioner's husband, the petitioner and others prevented the Police officials from discharging their duty and also threatened them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that when the Police officers went to secure the petitioner's husband, the petitioner tried to assault the Police officials and also threatened them. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the allegations levelled against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned
