2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's brother-in-law borrowed a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- from the petitioner five years back, but the same was not returned because of demise of the defacto complainant's brother-in-law. The petitioner asked the above amount to the defacto complainant, but the same was refused by him, so quarrel arose between them, which led to the attack on the defacto complainant by the petitioner and others. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that it is a money dispute between the parties and the injured is discharged from the hospital. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it is the money dispute between the parties and the injured is discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
