The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 143, 294(b), 323, 355, and 506(2) IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.68 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with hands and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a family dispute between the parties. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that it is a case and counter case and the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
