2.The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners and other accused abused and attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. She is the wife of the first accused, so that, she has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner and the defacto complainant are close relatives and there is no specific overt act attributed against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody for more than three months and hence, he prayed for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending. An earlier bail application filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this Court in Crl.O.P(MD) No.2714 of 2024, vide order dated 04.03.2024. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the gravity of the offence and there is no change in circumstances to allow the present bail petition, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner herein.

CRL OP(MD) No.4250 of 2024

6. In view of the above, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
