2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and one Rajaprabha had loved each other and on 04.03.2024, when they were talking nearby Harvipatti park, the petitioner, who is the relative of Rajaprabha, came there and called the defacto complainant to come to nearby coconut garden. Thereafter, the defacto complainant went to the said garden where the petitioner along with four persons attacked the defacto complainant with stick and hands. Hence this complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
