2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was involved in illegal transportation of four unit of gravel sand. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioner, on his own volition, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the Government Model Girls Higher Secondary School, Ulaganeri, Y.Othakadai, Madurai, for purchasing furniture, ie., tables, chairs etc., in the said school and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioner was involved in illegal transportation of four unit of gravel sand. However, he fairly conceded that the petitioner has no previous case.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the amount of sand involved in this case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of
