COMMON ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by J.NISHA BANU, J.)

These petitions are filed to condone the delay of 790 days, each in filing the above writ appeals against the order of this Court dated 29.11.2022 in W.P.(MD)No.7124, 7125 and 7126 of 2017.

2.The reason given by the petitioners for such huge delay is due to some administrative reasons, the petitioners were not able to file the appeals in time. Except this, no other sufficient reason was given by the petitioners.

3.Though the Courts have consistently held that the merits of the matter should be looked into, instead of throwing it on technicalities, yet, it is also a settled proposition that inordinate delay defeats equity. In the instant case, the averments made in the supporting affidavit are bereft of sufficient cause for condoning the inordinate delay of 1027 days in filing the Writ Appeal, which would clearly exhibits lethargic attitude on the part of the petitioners, as such the petitioners are not entitled to seek indulgence of this Court.

C.M.P.(MD)Nos.3791 to 3793 of 2025

4.Thus, we are not inclined to condone the delay. Accordingly, these petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected Writ Appeals are rejected at SR stage itself.
