2.The case of the prosecution is that on 26.02.2024, when the first petitioner and the defacto complainant were consuming liquor, a wordy quarrel arose between them with regard to the earlier election, for which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with knife. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a counter case is pending against the defacto complainant. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that it is a counter case and the injured was already discharged from the hospital. The investigation is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it appears to be a counter case and the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
