2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant who is the Village Administrative Officer, has given a complaint stating that the petitioners are running a factory in an illegal manner and on the instructions of the petitioners, crackers have been manufactured at Ganeshwari Crackers factory. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the investigation is yet to be completed and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Sivakasi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two
