The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.105 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have parked their car by blocking the pathway which was questioned by the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant with bare hands and stick and caused injuries to the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners have filed affidavits of undertaking that they will not park their vehicles in front of the defacto complainant's house. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that in this case, two persons sustained injuries, in which, one person was discharged and though another person is in-patient, he will be discharged from the hospital today.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the affidavits of
