2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and one Rajaprabha loved each other. On 04.03.2024, when the defacto complainant went to meet the said Rajaprabha, the petitioners came there and sent off his brother's daughter and attacked the defacto complainant. Thereby, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them. He would further submit that the co-accused was already released on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured was already discharged from the hospital and the investigation is pending. The petitioners have three previous and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a
