2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner illegally transported two units of river sand by using tipper lorry. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Forty Thousand only) to the Government Boys Higher Secondary School, Vangal, Karur District, for the welfare of the students studying in the School.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner is having two similar previous cases. Accordingly, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
