2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant, who is the Sub-Inspector of Police, lodged a complaint before the respondent Police stating that on 30.08.2023, when the defacto complainant was doing vehicle check up near Subramaniyaperi Vilaku, the petitioner and his friend have driven the two wheeler rashly and after seeing the defacto complainant, they were trying to reverse the two wheeler which was questioned by the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioner and his friend abused them and gave life threaten. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that ten previous cases are pending against the petitioner and he is a history sheeter.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of
