respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.68 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 14.03.2024, when the defacto complainant was in her home, the petitioners along with other accused came to the house of the defacto complainant and enquired about her elder sister's son, namely, Sangali and threatened her not to provide any accommodation to the said Sangali and also beaten her. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and it is a case and case in counter and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured person was already discharged from the hospital and the investigation is pending. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
