The petitioners / Accused Nos.1 to 4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 323 and 506(i) IPC in Crime No.88 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute pending between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners herein attacked the defacto complainant with hands and abused him in filthy language and caused simple injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a
