2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's sister was involved in a murder case. After she was enlarged on bail, the defacto complainant went to her house to take the cloths and at that time, the petitioner entered into a quarrel with him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, the investigation is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
