respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 354, 354(b) and 294(b) of IPC in Crime No.7 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between the parties, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the respondent police stating that the petitioner threatened the defacto complainant and sexually abused her. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are close relatives. In fact, the defacto complainant is the petitioner's sister's daughter and there was a property dispute between them. For which, the defacto complainant made a false complaint before the respondent police. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the investigation is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
