4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.217 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute between the parties, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, investigation is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
