2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is an accused in Cr.No.8 of 2024, which was registered on the basis of the complaint given by the defacto complainant stating that the daughter of A1 and the defacto complainant loved each other and they have got married. Due to which, the accused persons murdered the girl and fired the body in a burial ground. After registration of the above said case, the petitioner was arrested and thereafter, he was released on bail. When he was bailed out, he was threatened the defacto complainant and other witness. Hence, the present case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to stay away from the native place and accordingly, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner herein threatened L.W.1 and L.W.2 and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
