IPC in Crime No.161 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute regarding installation of flex board between two persons and when the defacto complainant tried to pacify them, the accused persons attacked him and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that already this Court granted anticipatory bail to the co-accused and hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that this Court already granted anticipatory bail to the co-accused and that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
