the Prevention of Damage of Public Property Act, 1984 in Crime No.64 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons set fire to the defacto complainant's bike and also made life threat to him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the credit of crime number and on such deposit, the learned Magistrate shall disburse the same to the defacto complainant after obtaining a proper affidavit. In the event of petitioner succeeding in the present case, the amount will be refunded to him. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti on condition
