Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.41 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported 1 unit of gravel sand. Hence, the case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, to show his bona fides, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, on his own volition is ready to contribute a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) for the purpose of restoration of the Temple Tank/Public Tank, which would be beneficial to the members of the public at large and, therefore, this Court may grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.Upon the aforesaid submission, learned members of the Bar brought to the notice of this Court that the Temple Tanks situated in and around Trichy are in a very precarious condition and that the said tanks have been encroached. In this regard, it is brought to the notice of this Court that Arulmighu Thaiyumanavar Temple, Malaikottai/Uchi Pillaiyar Koil, Malaikottai, either under the control of the Executive Officer, HR & CE Department or Commissioner of Trichy Corporation has been grossly encroached by several persons and restoration of the said Temple Tank would not only be beneficial to the deity in the Temple, but would also benefit the public at large, living in the said locality for which action has to be taken by the Corporation to remove the said encroachment to have the Temple Tank restored.

5.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the Tank situated near Arulmighu Thaiyumanavar Temple, Malaikkottai/Uchi Pillaiyar Koil, Malaikkottai is at present managed by the Trichy Corporation and, therefore, this Court may give appropriate directions to the Commissioner, Corporation of Trichy for removing encroachments if any and further the amounts of such restoration may be placed at the disposal of the Commissioner, Corporation of Trichy, in the form of Demand Drafts.

6.Coming to the case on hand, the learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) submits that investigation is pending.

7.Having heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also considering the facts and circumstances placed before this Court and taking note of the fact that the petitioner shows some remorse to mend himself by voluntarily submitting to contribute for the welfare activities towards the public, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

8.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai on
