2.The case of the prosecution is that there was some dispute between the accused and the defacto complaint with regard to the management of the Church, due to which, the petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's son, the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant's husband and son. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the co-accused were released on bail by the Court below. Accordingly, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending.
