2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons were found in illegal possession of 1 kg 500 Gms of Ganja and thereafter, the respondent Police seized the ganja from the accused persons. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that totally 1 kg 500 gms of Ganja were recovered from the accused persons. He would further submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the seized contraband is not a commercial quantity, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
