2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons have entered into the defacto complainant's home and robbed a sum of Rs.5000/- and damaged the house hold appliances and threatened him with dire consequences.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the name of the petitioner was not found in the First Information Report. Based on the confession statement of the co-accused, the petitioner was implicated in this case and except the confession statement of the co-accused, no other material is available as against this petitioner. He is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and in order to show his bonafide, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- before the concerned Magistrate Court to the credit of Crime No.51 of 2024. He is languishing in jail from 11.03.2024.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent objects for grant of bail that the petitioner is having three previous cases pending as against him.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and considering that the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of Crime No.51 of 2024 and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
