2.The case of the prosecution is that on 24.03.2024, the petitioners have criminally intimidated the defacto complainant and scolded him due to civil dispute.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the second petitioner and the defacto complainant are own brothers. Due to civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the defacto complainant has attacked the first petitioner and her father. Based on the complaint given by the petitioner, a criminal case has been registered as against the defacto complainant.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submits that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case in Crime No.96 of 2024 has been registered as against the petitioners and one another for the offence under Sections 441, 294b and 506(ii) IPC. He further submits that a counter case has also been registered as against the defacto complainant and others for the offence punishable under Sections 109, 294b, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002. The second petitioner is a Doctor in a Government Hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also
