were travelling in a two wheeler and the accused persons came in an auto. Both vehicles dashed against each other, subsequently, accused persons abused the defacto complainant and his sisters, assaulted on his private part and thereby, caused injuries.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent submits that the petitioner and other accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also considering the nature of injuries suffered by the defacto complainant, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed.
