2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. There is a property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's family, due to which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant's family with hands and caused injuries to them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent submits that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital.

5.Considering the nature of allegations, the injured has been discharged from the Hospital and also considering the relationship between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Tiruchirapalli, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-(Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) each, with one surety for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Tiruchirapalli, and on further conditions that:
