The petitioners, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police in connection with the case in Crime No.23 of 2024 for the offence under Section 294(b), 323, 506 (ii)I.P.C., have filed this petition, seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some dispute in shepherding the cattle, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant by using filthy language, attacked him and caused injuries to him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. Mr.V.Vijayarajan, learned counsel for the defacto complainant / intervenor appeared and raised objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submits that the petitioners and the defacto complainant belong to the same village. The investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the petitioners are not having any previous case and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital.
