2. The petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner harassed the defacto complainant by demanding dowry and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. Considering the fact that it is a matrimonial dispute and also considering the request made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court, by order dated 17.04.2024, referred the matter to the Mediation Centre attached to this Bench.

4. It appears that the petitioner has failed to appear before the mediation centre, while the defacto complainant was present before the mediation centre.
