connection with the case in Crime No.121 of 2024 for the offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) I.P.C, has filed this petition, seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant, attacked him and also threatened him with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. A case and counter case has been registered. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5. Considering the nature of offence involved and also considering the fact that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are the Jamath members and that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory
