The petitioner, apprehending arrest at the hands of the Police in connection with a case in Crime No.68 of 2024 for the offence under Sections 294(b) and 506(i) IPC r/w. Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, has filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's lorry bearing Reg.No.TN69L 7579 was set on fire, which was parked at Chandra Petrol Bunk. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that based on the confession statement of the co-accused, this petitioner has been implicated in this case.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police submits that the defacto complainant suspected that the accused persons might have committed the offence, based on which, the accused persons were arrested.

5. Considering the nature of offence and also considering the fact that the petitioner has been implicated based on the confession statement of the co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
